

Thai Protesters Blockade Buildings Housing Ballot Papers Ahead of Election

Bangkok, February 1 (RHC)-- Anti-government protesters in Thailand have formed blockades around buildings where ballot papers are being kept in a bid to prevent their distribution ahead of elections tomorrow, Sunday.

The opposition wants Prime Minister Yingluck Shinawatra to resign and be replaced by an unelected council. They are boycotting Sunday's election which Yingluck's party is expected to win.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/13210-thai-protesters-blockade-buildings-housing-ballot-papers-ahead-of-election>

Radio Habana Cuba