

Mexican Cartoonist Eduardo del Río, Known as Rius, Dies at 83

Mexico City, August 9 (RHC)-- Beloved Mexican cartoonist Eduardo del Río, known to the world as Rius, has died.

For five decades, Rius authored dozens of books and thousands of comic strips satirizing politicians; educating people about politics, environmentalism and history; and expressing solidarity with revolutionary movements across Latin America.

Eduardo del Río was the author of the best-selling book "Marx for Beginners." He died in Morelos, Mexico, at the age of 83.
