

Former Democratic Leader Considered Putting in Biden for Presidential Race

Washington, November 6 (RHC)-- Former Democratic National Committee interim chair Donna Brazile revealed over the weekend that she seriously considered swapping out Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton for Vice President Joe Biden after Clinton collapsed from exhaustion at an event on September 11 of last year.

The bombshell came as Brazile published her new memoir, entitled "Hacks," describing a DNC in disarray, with a Clinton campaign Brazile labeled "anemic" and tainted by what she called "the odor of failure."

Last week, Brazile revealed that the DNC made an unethical agreement with Hillary Clinton's campaign during the lead-up to the 2016 election -- skewing the primary in her favor in exchange for money to keep the indebted party afloat.
