

Ethiopian President Begins Official Activities in Cuba

Havana, January 9 (RHC)-- The president of Ethiopia, Mulatu Teshome Wirtu, began activities on his official agenda in Cuba on Tuesday, including meetings with authorities in Havana.

On Tuesday, the Ethiopian president placed a wreath at the Internationalist Pantheon in the Colón Cemetery, and another one at the statue of Cuba's National Hero, José Martí, in Havana's Plaza de la Revolución.

The Ethiopian head of state will tour several provinces of Cuba before ending his official visit to the island on Friday, January 12th.
