Havana, April 9 (RHC)-- China's Huamao Commodity Company plans sales amounting to more than 10 million dollar-worth of hardware products in Cuba this year, which includes some six million lines of items.

Company manager Jorge Ruiz mentioned electric, pneumatic and manual tools for the construction sector and also the industry, some of which were displayed at the International Construction Fair held last week here in Havana.

Huamao Commodity started operations in Cuba in 2007 and at present the entity maintains a permanent sales outlet with an attractive and varied offer.

The Chinese company maintains close links with Cuba's wholesale enterprise Almacenes Universales S.A., which guarantees the Chinese entity an important role as provider for the local market.

Huamao maintains 14 shops in Cuba in cities like Havana, central Villa Clara and Ciego de Avila and eastern Santiago de Cuba and Holguin.
