

Havana City historian Eusebio Leal in Costa Rica to receive award

Havana, April 26 (RHC)-- Havana City historian Eusebio Leal is traveling to Costa Rica on Thursday to be presented with that nation's Juan Mora Fernández Order in its Grand Cross Silver Plate degree.

Dr. Leal's agenda in Costa Rica includes a tour of the San Jose central market and visit to the National Theater, considered the capital's finest historic building and recently included among Costa Rica's 14 national symbols.

The Havana City historian will deliver a master lecture at the Buenaventura Corrales School auditorium.

The Morista Academy of Costa Rica will also be awarding Eusebio Leal with its Order of Merit, and the San José municipality will be declaring him Distinguished Visitor of the Costa Rican capital.
