

Jewish activists march in D.C. to protest opening of U.S. embassy in Jerusalem

Washington, May 15 (RHC)-- In the United States, young Jewish demonstrators marched through the streets of Washington, D.C., to protest against the opening of the U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem and the Israeli military's massacre Monday.

One of the organizers of the protest, Sara Sandmel, told reporters: "We're here building an embassy of freedom, to show that we, as young American Jews, do not stand with the embassy move from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. We believe that that's an embassy that represents endless occupation. And we want to stand together for freedom and dignity for all Israelis and Palestinians."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/162328-jewish-activists-march-in-dc-to-protest-opening-of-us-embassy-in-jerusalem>

Radio Habana Cuba