

French Foreign Minister Jean Yves Le Drian visits Cuba

Havana, July 28 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez is meeting Saturday with his French counterpart, Jean-Yves Le Drian, who is on an official two-day visit to the island.

According to his agenda, Le Drian will also visit areas of Old Havana, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1982, and will also meet with the Cuban Minister of Foreign Trade and Investment Rodrigo Malmierca.

With his arrival in Havana from Colombia, where he spent three days, Le Drian becomes the first European foreign minister to visit the island after the election of Miguel Díaz-Canel as Cuban president on April 19th.
