

China and Cuba pledge to strengthen military ties

CUBA

CHINA

Beijing, November 24 (RHC) – Chinese State Councilor and Minister of National Defense Wei Fenghe, on Friday, held talks with visiting Cuban Minister of the Revolutionary Armed Forces Leopoldo Cintra Frias.

Pointing the special friendship between China and Cuba, Wei recalled the high-level bilateral ties in recent years and the substantial development of military relations between the two countries.

He reiterated China's commitment to supporting global development as well as both regional and world peace.

Cintra thanked China for its selfless assistance over the years adding that Cuba is willing to continue strengthening bilateral ties and military relations through enhanced solidarity and cooperation with China.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/177419-china-and-cuba-pledge-to-strengthen-military-ties>

Radio Habana Cuba