

Arab League Summit Concludes with Kuwait Declaration

Kuwait City, March 27 (RHC-KUNA) - Arab leaders concluded the two-day Arab League summit in Kuwait on Wednesday, with their commitment to boost relations and heal rifts between Arab states.

The 25th Arab League Summit ended with the announcement of the Kuwait Declaration, a comprehensive record, covering political, economic and social issues in the Arab world.

The leaders reconfirmed their commitments to boost relations and heal rifts between Arab states, through constructive and transparent dialogue, pledging to provide financial and technical support to countries that need it.

The declaration called for finding solutions to pressing issues of Arab states, with exerted efforts to overcome political and economic obstacles.

The Syrian crisis and the Palestinian cause are high on the summit's agenda.

The declaration reiterated that the Palestinian cause remains the core issue in the entire region. The leaders urged for respect for Palestinian President, Mahmoud Abbas, which, they said, will pave the way for reconciliation among all the Palestinian factions.

As for the Syrian crisis, the declaration called for a political solution. The declaration also condemned any forms of terrorism and interference in the internal affairs of other countries.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/18699-arab-league-summit-concludes-with-kuwait-declaration>

Radio Habana Cuba