

Six civilians killed in Yemen as Saudi-led coalition bombs fall on Sanaa

Sanaa, May 17 (RHC)-- In Yemen, at least six civilians were killed and dozens more wounded today as U.S.-backed, Saudi-led coalition warplanes bombed residential areas of Yemen's capital, Sanaa.

The violence came as Houthi rebels and Saudi-backed forces clashed in the port city of Hodeidah, threatening to unravel a ceasefire and a planned pullout from the city by Houthi forces.
