

Manager of Cuban baseball team Artemisa "Cazadores" dies in Havana

Havana, July 15 (RHC) – Artemisa "Cazadores" manager Dany Valdespino passed away last Sunday as consequence of an accident suffered a few days ago.

Valdespino had directed the "Cazadores" for six seasons and obtained the best results in baseball for the young team. He also directed the Western team in the Special Series held in Cuba as preparation for the Central American and Caribbean Games in Barranquilla, Colombia, 2018.

Athletes and personalities related to baseball in Cuba have sent their condolences to Valdespino's family and friends.
