

Cuban president meets with visiting Ghanaian vice-president

Havana 20 July (RHC)--Cuban president Miguel Diaz-Canel Bermudez received Friday the vice president of the Republic of Ghana, Dr. Alhaji Mahamudu Bawumia, who is on an official visit to Cuba.

The meeting took place in a cordial atmosphere. Both reviewed the historical and fraternal relations that unite the two countries and reiterated their willingness to promote political ties of solidarity and cooperation.

Diaz-Canel and Bawumia also exchanged on issues on the international agenda.

While in Cuba, the Ghanaian high-ranking official has held talks with other Cuban leaders, and participated in the graduation ceremony of some 200 health professionals from his country that were trained on the Caribbean island.

Radio Habana Cuba