

Perez and Grau bring another gold home in rapid pistol

Lima, July 30 (RHC) – Cuban rapid pistol athletes Laina Perez and Jorge Grau, joined their guns in the Mixed Doubles category to give Cuba another gold medal in the shooting events of Lima 2019 Pan-American Games.

After both of them won individual titles, they came up with an easy victory to give Cuba its third gold medal in Sport Shooting in this edition of the Pan-Am Games. Perez and Grau finished the event with a total of 475 points and left Americans Miglena Todorova and Nickolaus Mowrer (471.3) with the silver medal and Ecuadorians Andrea Perez and Yautung Cuba (411) in the third place.

This Tuesday, Alexander Molerio and Rainer Quintanilla will represent Cuba in the men's 50 meters Three Position Rifle.
