

Donald Trump supporter armed with gun and knife arrested outside El Paso Immigrant Center

El Paso, August 8 (RHC)-- In the United States, El Paso police arrested a Trump supporter Wednesday as he sat outside an organizing space for immigrant activists, wearing blue latex gloves and brandishing a knife.

Organizers with Casa Carmelita say police also recovered a loaded gun, ammunition and a bag of white powder from the man's truck, which sported a large banner portraying Donald Trump as Rambo and bumper stickers for the far-right conspiracy website InfoWars.

The man was identified as 21-year-old Thomas Bartram, who was profiled earlier on Wednesday by the Washington Examiner. Bartram told the paper he was an "open-carry kind of guy" at political rallies; a photo accompanying the article shows Bartram making what appears to be a white nationalist hand gesture, the Heil Hitler salute.
