

Video shows Donald Trump shooting and stabbing journalists and political rivals

Washington, October 14 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump is again facing allegations he is personally inciting political violence and violence against journalists, after news surfaced about the broadcast of a video in which a fake President Trump shoots, stabs and brutally assaults journalists and political opponents.

The New York Times reports the video was broadcast at a Miami conference for Trump supporters last week. In the video, the fake Trump shoots a number of people whose faces have been replaced by the logos of news media organizations. He also physically assaults California Democratic Representative Maxine Waters, hits former President Barack Obama in the back and lights Democratic presidential candidate Bernie Sanders's head on fire.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/204855-video-shows-donald-trump-shooting-and-stabbing-journalists-and-political-rivals>

Radio Habana Cuba