

Trump avoids state income taxes after declaring Florida residency

Washington, November 2 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump and First Lady Melania Trump have filed a “declaration of domicile” declaring their permanent residence to be the Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, Florida. They were previously listed as residing at Trump Tower in New York City, where Donald Trump has been a lifelong resident.

The New York Times cited an official close to Trump who said the move was primarily for tax purposes, since Florida residents pay no state income taxes. In a tweet, New York Governor Andrew Cuomo wrote: “Good riddance. It’s not like Donald Trump paid taxes here anyway... He’s all yours, Florida.”
