

Floral offering of the Cuban people to Fidel Castro

Santiago de Cuba, December 4 (RHC)-- On the third anniversary of the entombment of the ashes of Commander in Chief Fidel Castro Ruz, a floral offering in the name of the Cuban people was laid before the stone that treasures them in the Santa Ifigenia Heritage Cemetery in Santiago de Cuba.

The province's top authorities led the visitors to the graveyard and brought flowers to the historical leader of the Cuban Revolution and to the founding fathers of the nation that have their final resting place in that sacred altar of the homeland.

Thousands of Santiagueros participated in a gigantic pilgrimage to honor the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro Ruz.

The march departed from the Antonio Maceo Revolution Square and culminated in the Santa Ifigenia Heritage Cemetery.
