

Pope Francis condemns migrant detention camps in Christmas Day address

Vatican City, December 26 (RHC)-- Millions of people around the world celebrated Christmas on Wednesday. At the Vatican, Pope Francis prayed for migrants around the world and condemned “inhumane detention camps” during his annual Christmas Day address at St. Peter’s Basilica.

The Pope said: “May the son of God, come down to Earth from heaven, protect and sustain all of those who, due to these and other injustices, are forced to emigrate in the hope of a secure life. It is injustice that makes them cross deserts and seas that become cemeteries. It is injustice that forces them to endure unspeakable forms of abuse, enslavement of every kind and torture in inhumane detention camps. It is injustice that turns them away from places where they might have the hope of a dignified life but instead find themselves before the walls of indifference.”

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/210675-pope-francis-condemns-migrant-detention-camps-in-christmas-day-address>

Radio Habana Cuba