

Top Wall Street executives on Biden guest list for Manhattan fundraiser

New York, February 15 (RHC)-- Former Vice President and current Democratic presidential hopeful Joe Biden held a pair of fundraisers in Manhattan night with top Wall Street executives. Among those on the guest list obtained by CNBC were Jonathan Gray of Blackstone, Alan Hartman of Centerview Partners, Ray McGuire of Citigroup, and John Mack, former CEO of Morgan Stanley.

The fundraisers come as Biden lagged far behind in the first two primary contests in Iowa and New Hampshire.

Meanwhile, the Iowa Democratic Party chair has resigned after the caucus results were delayed and riddled with errors and inconsistencies.
