

Top coronavirus expert Dr. Anthony Fauci gets security detail after death threats

Washington, April 2 (RHC)-- The White House's top medical expert on the coronavirus pandemic, Dr. Anthony Fauci, has reportedly been given a security detail after receiving death threats.

Dr. Fauci has repeatedly contradicted Donald Trump's false claims about the pandemic and the timeline for any new treatments or a vaccine.

The medical expert been criticized in conservative media circles in language echoing President Trump. For example, a recent headline in the American Thinker referred to Fauci as a "Deep-State Hillary Clinton-loving stooge."
