#EEUU no coopera en lucha antiterrorista. #Cuba sigue esperando resultados de investigación y medidas vs terrorista que atacó @EmbajadadeCuba en Washington.

Havana, May 15 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel stated this Friday that it is the United States that does not cooperate in the fight against terrorism, of whose actions against the Caribbean nation it is an accomplice.

"Cuba is still waiting for the results of the investigation and measures against the terrorist who attacked the Embassy of Cuba in Washington," the president said on his personal Twitter account in relation to the attack against the Cuban diplomatic mission in the U.S. capital on April 30th.

In another tweet, Diaz-Canel remarked that the U.S. government "broke the record of cynicism and went from silence to insult," in a clear allusion to the re-inclusion of Cuba on the State Department's list of countries that do not cooperate with terrorism.

In another message, Díaz-Canel stressed that the United States "lies and offends #Cuba because it cannot respond to us with the truth without accusing itself of a terrorist attack on 'Embassy-Cuba-USA'.

The U.S. State Department announced this Wednesday that it has reinstated Cuba on the list of nations that supposedly "do not cooperate with anti-terrorist efforts."
