

Brazil's Bolsonaro tests positive for coronavirus again

Brasilia, July 16 (RHC)-- Brazilian President Jair Bolsonaro has again tested positive for coronavirus, he told reporters in Brasilia, suggesting he has yet to recover from an infection first diagnosed last week.

Since catching the virus, the president has said he remains in good health and he would resume his normal work schedule if he tested negative this week. On Wednesday he said he would get tested again in a few days.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/228779-brazils-bolsonaro-tests-positive-for-coronavirus-again>

Radio Habana Cuba