

Journalist and commentator Michael Brooks dies at 37

Washington, July 22 (RHC)-- The journalist and political commentator Michael Brooks has died suddenly at the age of 37. He hosted the online program “The Michael Brooks Show” and worked with “The Majority Report” and Jacobin.

Tributes have poured in from around the world. Former Brazilian President Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva wrote on Twitter: “May his passion for social justice be remembered and inspire people around the world.” Michael Brooks traveled to Brazil earlier this year to interview Lula shortly after he was released from prison.
