Israeli authorities demolish coronavirus testing center in West Bank

Ramallah, July 23 (RHC)-- In the occupied West Bank, Israeli authorities have demolished a coronavirus testing center in the city of Hebron.

In Iran, the Health Ministry reported 229 new deaths on Tuesday — the highest daily total since the pandemic began. And the Gulf state of Oman is instituting a near-total lockdown including nightly curfews and a travel ban.

Radio Habana Cuba