

IMF approves $4.3 billion to help South Africa fight COVID-19

Washington, July 28 (RHC)-- The International Monetary Fund has approved $4.3 billion in aid to South Africa to help the country fight the coronavirus pandemic.

"The IMF approved $4.3 billion in emergency financial assistance under the Rapid Financing Instrument to support the authorities' efforts in addressing the challenging health situation and severe economic impact of the COVID-19 shock," the Washington-based crisis lender said in a statement.
