High-level reciprocal visits between the two countries, and since the establishment of diplomatic relations, were significant to the development of bilateral ties.

"Although our two countries are geographically distant, the bond between the people of Mongolia and Cuba is closer than ever. The visit of President of the Cuban Socialist Party, Dr. Raúl Castro Ruz, marked Mongolia's first visit to Cuba in April 1970. This is a witness to cordial ties during the years. President of Mongolia's People's Revolutionary Party (MPRP), Chairman of the Council of Ministers Mr. Tsakhiagiin Elbegdorj, paid a visit to Mr. R. Castro Ruz. Although there was no Ambassador to Cuba at that time, Mr. Castro Ruz stated in his speech: "I will receive and treat you as an Ambassador" in regard to the Cuban Government's recognition of independence of Mongolia in 1945 and their
