

Cuba regrets the loss of life in Mexico and Panama due to hurricane

Image not found or type unknown

Damage caused by Hurricane Eta in Mexico and Panama

Havana, November 9 (RHC)--The Cuban Foreign Minister, Bruno Rodriguez, conveyed condolences to the peoples and governments of Mexico and Panama for the loss of human life following the impact of Hurricane Eta on those territories.

"We express our solidarity with the peoples and governments of Mexico and Panama for the loss of human lives and material damage caused by Hurricane Eta," the head of Cuban diplomacy wrote on Twitter.

Rodríguez extended his heartfelt condolences to the families and friends of the victims.

Mexico and Panama reported dozens of deaths and thousands of victims due to floods and landslides caused by the intense rains associated with Eta's recent passage through those nations.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/239129-cuba-regrets-the-loss-of-life-in-mexico-and-panama-due-to-hurricane>

Radio Habana Cuba