Activists of peaceful anti-nuclear protest in U.S. sentenced to prison

Atlanta, November 13 (RHC)-- Two anti-nuclear activists have been sentenced to over a year in prison for breaking into the Kings Bay Naval Submarine Base in Georgia.

Carmen Trotta and Clare Grady are both members of the Kings Bay Plowshares 7, which broke into the base in 2018 armed with hammers, crime scene tape, baby bottles containing their own blood, and an indictment charging the U.S. government with crimes against peace.
