Havana, November 19 (RHC)-- Three games stood out on Wednesday in the 60th National Baseball Series in Cuba, whose leader, Matanzas, won by a score of 3-5 against Ciego de Avila.

The Tigres Avileños, with 17 victories and 23 losses to occupy the thirteenth place of the tournament, made the second blow followed by the current national monarchs (27-17).

Dachel Duquesne, responsible for the opening and forced to leave the box in the eighth inning by the reaction of the defeated, deserved the victory, which was preserved by Vladimir Garcia.

Granma, (26-18, in second place) lost 2-3 the first challenge against Industriales (23-21, in ninth place) and then dominated its rival by a score of 8 to 0 in the Latinoamericano stadium in Havana.

In the victory of the Alazanes Granmenses, with the opening pitches by Yunier Castillo, Osvaldo Abreu stood out, connecting 4-4 and batting in three runs.

Also this Wednesday, Sancti Spíritus (25-18, fifth) beat Mayabeque 8-1 (21-23, twelfth), Artemisa (13-30, fifteenth) dominated Guantánamo 4-3 (14-30, fourteenth) and Holguín (22-22, eleventh) defeated Isla de la Juventud 6-4 (10-25, sixteenth and last).
