Lima, August 25 (RHC)-- The secretary general of the Peru Libre party, Vladimir Cerron, has called for a march against what he calls the ongoing sabotage to dismantle the cabinet proposed by President Pedro Castillo, headed by Guido Bellido as prime minister.

Cerrón denounced that this is an attempt to replace Guido Bellido, as president of the Council of Ministers, by a former Minister of Justice who would be incorporated to the Government and whose name he did not mention.

The denunciation of the leader of Perú Libre takes place in the preamble of the presentation of the cabinet to the Congress, so that the legislature grants it confidence, a process that has been mediated by the resignation of the Chancellor Héctor Béhar, last week, as a result of a media pressure campaign.

In this context, Vladimir Cerron called the bases of his group to a mobilization in support of the Ministerial Cabinet presided by Bellido and against the presidential vacancy, which is intended to be applied to Pedro Castillo and what he called the imposition of a new road map.

The call is to mobilize next Thursday (the same day of the presentation of the Guido Bellido cabinet before the Congress) in the San Martin Plaza in support of what he called a Cabinet of all bloods.

Since last week, Cerrón has already criticized the forced departure of Béhar, which, he said, expresses an attempt to twist the course of the Government elected by the Peruvian people and lead it to a second "humalism" -- in reference to what was done by former President Ollanta Humala.
