

Police ready for pro-Trump rally in Washington, DC

Image not found or type unknown

In Washington, D.C., police have erected a high metal fence blocking off the Capitol building and grounds ahead of the so-called Justice for J6 rally planned for Saturday.

Washington, September 17 (RHC)-- In Washington, D.C., police have erected a high metal fence blocking off the Capitol building and grounds ahead of the so-called Justice for J6 rally planned for Saturday.

Protest organizers are demanding charges be dropped for violent Trump supporters who attacked Congress on January 6th.

CNN reports a Department of Homeland Security memo is warning of potential violence around Saturday's rally.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/270583-police-ready-for-pro-trump-rally-in-washington-dc>

Radio Habana Cuba