

Venezuela dismantles terrorist plan ahead of regional and municipal elections

Image not found or type unknown

In a press conference, Ceballos presented evidence, videos, audios and proofs about the group that intended a series of terrorist actions before the elections. | Photo: Twitter @MIJP_Vzla

Caracas, November 14 (RHC)-- The Venezuelan government announced on Saturday the dismantling of a new terrorist plan aimed at altering national stability, in the preamble to the regional and municipal elections of November 21st.

"We have disarticulated a new terrorist plan that intended to attempt against the sovereignty and peace of our people, shortly I will be giving important statements for the whole country," informed the Minister of Interior Relations, Justice and Peace, Remigio Ceballos.

In a press conference, Ceballos presented evidence, videos, audios and proofs about the group that intended a series of terrorist actions before the elections. This is the same group that tried to affect the 2020 parliamentary elections and the subsequent installation of the National Assembly (NA) on January 5, 2021.

Ceballos commented that "in this way Operation Protection and Peace for the people of Venezuela. In compliance with the instructions of our President Nicolas Maduro, we guarantee citizen security and peace for the Venezuelan people."

In his presentation, the sectorial vice-president for Citizen Security detailed that early Friday morning, a terrorist group intended to carry out an attack against the deposits of the National Electoral Council (CNE) in Mariche.

This criminal group was neutralized by the State intelligence agencies, and four subjects were captured, informed Ceballos.

Those arrested are Dimas Alberto González González, alias "Sepulturero", José Miguel Acuña Justo, Francisco Daniel Moya Hernández and Keiner Gutiérrez, financed by William Ricardo Sánchez Ramos, alias "Antorcha," who is in Spain. Antorcha coordinated the actions with fugitives Leopoldo López and Iván Simonovis.

The four subjects had explosive material and fuel drums, as well as 95 pamphlets related to a self-styled operation "American Continent 2020."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/277086-venezuela-dismantles-terrorist-plan-ahead-of-regional-and-municipal-elections>

Radio Habana Cuba