

Wyoming Republicans oust Liz Cheney over Trump criticism

Image not found or type unknown

Wyoming Republicans oust Liz Cheney over Trump criticism

Cheyenne, November 16 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Wyoming, the state Republican Party has voted to stop recognizing Congressmember Liz Cheney as a party member due to her vote to impeach Donald Trump for inciting the Capitol insurrection.

A spokesperson for Cheney responded by saying it was sad that leaders in the Wyoming Republican Party have “allowed themselves to be held hostage to the lies of a dangerous and irrational man.”

In other Trump news, the Wall Street Journal reports a Miami investment fund is preparing to purchase the Trump International Hotel in Washington DC for $375 million and turn the property into a Waldorf Astoria hotel while removing the Trump name.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/277334-wyoming-republicans-oust-liz-cheney-over-trump-criticism>

Radio Habana Cuba