Tehran, May 18 (RHC) -- Iranian President Seyyed Ebrahim Raisi received on Wednesday Cuban Deputy Prime Minister Ricardo Cabrisas and expressed interest in strengthening bilateral ties and confronting U.S. hostility.

Cabrisas is on an official visit to Tehran in the context of the XVIII Session of the Cuba-Iran Intergovernmental Commission.

Both expressed the firm political will of their respective governments to confront the coercive measures unilaterally and illegally imposed by the White House against their peoples, whose effects are more criminal in conditions of the current Covid-19 pandemic.
