

Wife of U.S. Supreme Court Justice asked Arizona lawmakers to overturn 2020 election

Image not found or type unknown

Newly released e-mails show Ginni Thomas, the wife of Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, personally urged two Arizona state lawmakers to back efforts to overturn Joe Biden's 2020 election victory.

Washington, May 25 (RHC)-- Newly-released e-mails show Ginni Thomas, the wife of Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, personally urged two Arizona state lawmakers to back efforts to overturn Joe Biden's 2020 election victory.

Thomas urged the Republican lawmakers to choose a "clean slate of Electors" in order to fight back against what she claimed was election fraud. This comes as Justice Thomas is facing increasing pressure to recuse himself from cases related to the 2020 election and the January 6 insurrection, in part because his wife took part in the January 6 "Stop the Steal" rally in Washington.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/288841-wife-of-us-supreme-court-justice-asked-arizona-lawmakers-to-overturn-2020-election>

Radio Habana Cuba