Fidel Castro's work will be present at international meeting in Cuba

Havana, Oct 26 (RHC)--The work of the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro, will be present at the 22nd International Meeting of Communist and Workers' Parties to be held in Cuba from October 27 to 29, an official source said Wednesday.

Ángel Arzuaga Reyes, Deputy Head, and Coordinator of the International Relations Department of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba said that the sessions will deal with how to unite ideas to face the challenges of today's world.

In a press conference, the official said that the more than 160 delegates from some 60 countries will also discuss the challenges "to face the main enemy which is imperialism".

He also said that the Final Declaration will contribute to achieving unity, solidarity, and cooperation among all communist and workers' parties.

"United we are stronger", will be the slogan of the Meeting attended by organizations from all continents (Source: Prensa Latina).
