

ALBA-TCP sends message of love, union and peace for the New Year

Havana, December 24 (RHC)-- The Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-People's Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP) sent a message of love, union and peace to the peoples and governments of Latin America and the Caribbean, and the rest of the world.

In a message published on its Twitter account, the Executive Secretariat of that mechanism reaffirmed its commitment to continue accompanying them in the construction of a region where fraternity, solidarity and cooperation reign.

The Alliance wished a Happy New Year 2023 to the countries that make up the bloc: Cuba, Venezuela, Bolivia, Nicaragua, Antigua and Barbuda, Dominica, Grenada, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, and St. Lucia.

ALBA-TCP aims to unite the capacities and strengths of its member nations to bring about structural transformations in the system of relations based on solidarity, justice and cooperation.
