Havana, January 5 (PL) - The post-season of the First Cuban Elite Baseball League continues today with the celebration of two games, after starting the day before.

The day will be marked by the debut of the outstanding leader of the regular phase, Agricultores, which will start its semifinal crossing against Tabacaleros at the Mártires de Barbados stadium.

The team that brings together players from Las Tunas and Granma was the best from start to finish in the regular calendar, so it comes out as a favorite against the troop that has elements of Pinar del Rio, Isla de la Juventud and Artemisa.

However, the postseason is a clean slate, and the disciples of the experienced Carlos Martí will have to ratify their favoritism on the field.

For their part, the westerners will have to appeal to a better offense to reinforce their excellent pitching staff to be able to surprise.

The day before, Centrales came out ahead in their match against Portuarios by winning five runs to two, in an emotional game decided in the last minute.

Today they will meet again at the same venue of the Victoria de Girón in Matanzas, where the losers will try to even the match, agreed to the best of seven games.
