

Cuban president exchanges with Cubans living in Argentina

Image not found or type unknown

@PresidenciaCuba

Havana, Jan 23 (RHC) The first secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba and president of the Republic, Miguel Díaz-Canel, met with a representation of Cubans living in that southern country.

On its Twitter account, the Presidency of Cuba also said that they talked about the home of all, its strengths, its goodness, and also how much remains to be done.

In another message on the same social network, the source also reported that the Cuban head of state spoke this afternoon with Argentine YouTuber Daniel Devita, and invited them to watch the broadcast tomorrow Tuesday, from his channel.

Image not found or type unknown

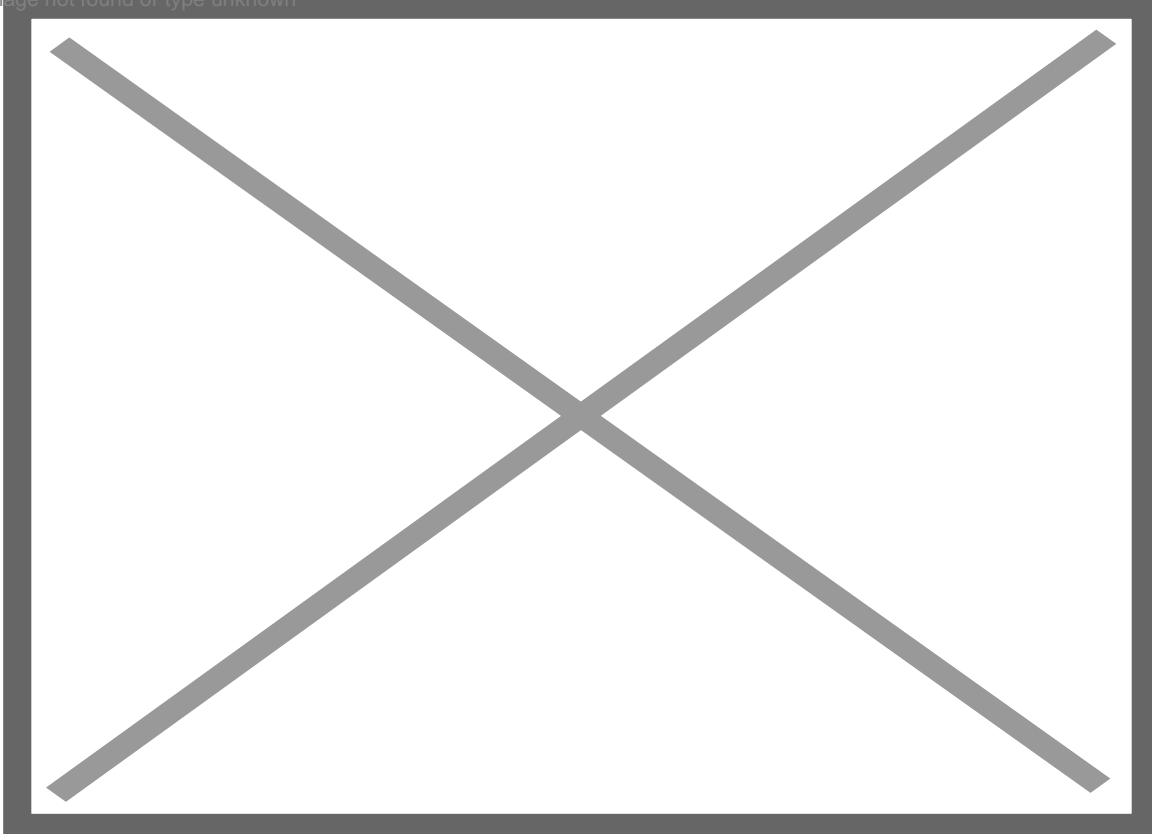

Photo: @PresidenciaCuba

The day before, Díaz-Canel arrived in Buenos Aires, the Argentine capital, to participate in the VII Summit of the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States (CELAC), to be held on the 24th in that city of more than 15 million inhabitants.

At the "Ministro Pistarini" International Airport, known as Ezeiza, the dignitary was received by the First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, International Trade and Worship of Argentina, Pablo Tettamanti.

Image not found or type unknown

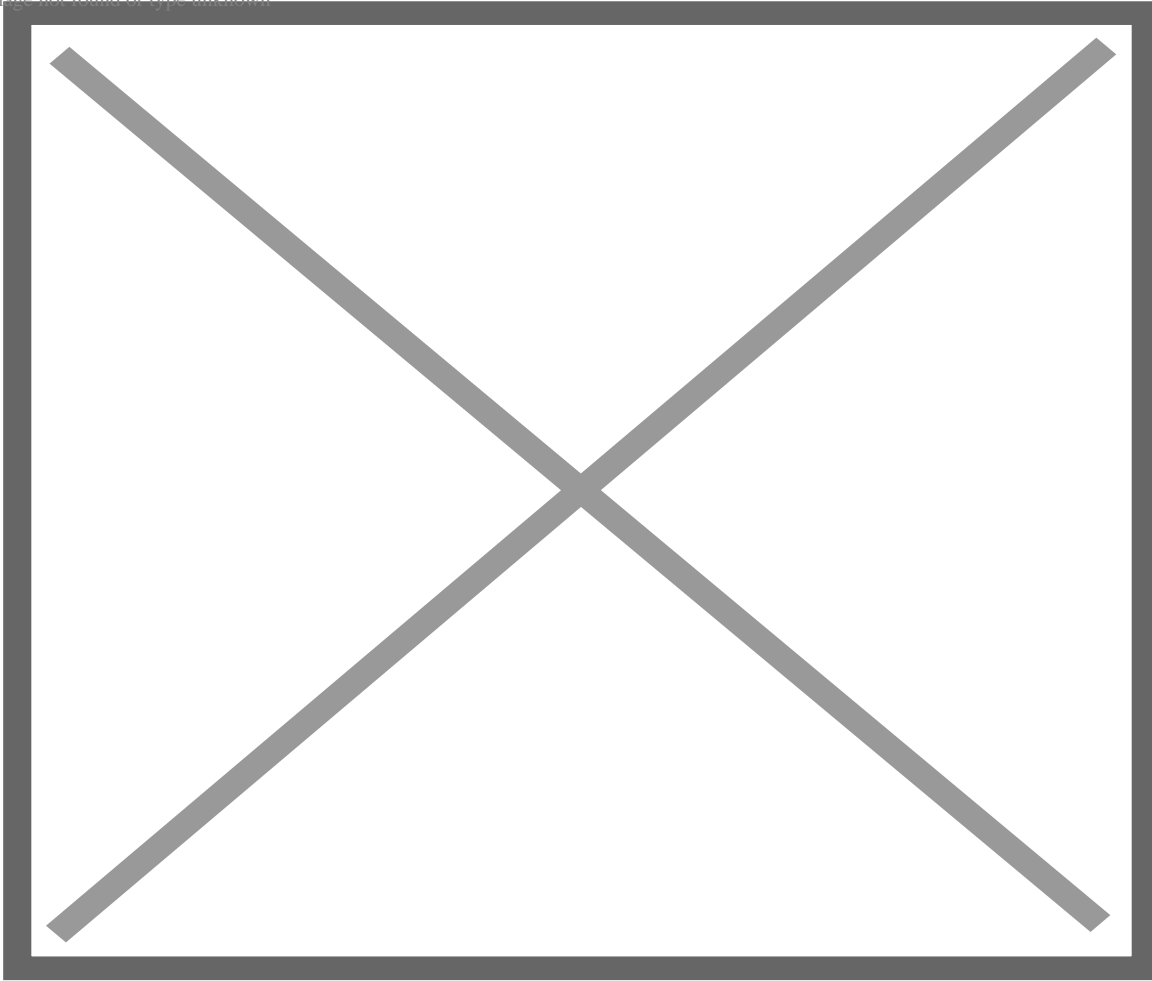

Photo: Radio Rebelde

The Cuban president announced that his return to the homeland will take place in time to celebrate together the 170th anniversary of our National Hero's birth (January 28), and "to resume the always challenging daily tasks" he said.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/311427-cuban-president-exchanges-with-cubans-living-in-argentina>

Radio Habana Cuba