

Team Cuba and champion Agricultores to meet at the Latin American Championship

Image not found or type unknown

The teams Cuba and the recent champion of the 1st Elite Baseball League on the island, Agricultores, will face each other in two preparatory games scheduled for next Sunday and Monday at the Latin American Stadium in Havana.

Havana, January 27 (JIT) - The teams Cuba and the recent champion of the 1st Elite Baseball League on the island, Agricultores, will face each other in two preparatory games scheduled for next Sunday and Monday at the Latin American Stadium in Havana.

Team Cuba is preparing for the V World Classic, scheduled for March 8 to 21, while Agricultores will be the Cuban representative in the upcoming Caribbean Baseball Series, from February 2 to 8, in Caracas.

The duels will start at 1:30 p.m. with public admission.

For Cuban fans, it will be a tremendous opportunity to see live figures who have not played here in Cuba for a long time, such as pitchers Liván Moinelo, Raidel Martínez and Yariel Rodríguez, contracted in Japanese professional baseball, as well as Alfredo Despaigne and Yurisbel Gracial, who spent several years with the SoftBank Falcons.

On Thursday, the radio and television program La Mesa Redonda was dedicated to baseball, precisely to Cuba's presence in both the Classic and the Caribbean Series.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/311868-team-cuba-and-champion-agricultores-to-meet-at-the-latin-american-championship>

Radio Habana Cuba