

Cuban foreign minister mourns the death of outstanding academic Masud-Piloto

Image not found or type unknown

Cuban academic Felix Masud-Piloto.

Havana, March 12 (RHC) Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez on Sunday mourned the death of Cuban academic Felix Masud-Piloto.

On Twitter, the Cuban diplomat offered his deepest condolences to Masud-Piloto's relatives and friends, whom he considered a strong defender of the Cuban revolution.

He was an active collaborator for Cuban cultural institutions including the Nicolás Guillén Foundation, the Union of Writers and Artists of Cuba (UNEAC), and the Casa de las Américas Cultural Center.

In 2007, he was awarded the Distinction for National Culture. (Source: Prensa Latina)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/316412-cuban-foreign-minister-mourns-the-death-of-outstanding-academic-masud-piloto>

Radio Habana Cuba