

More than 2,000 migrants landed on the Italian island of Lampedusa

Image not found or type unknown

Migrants arrive in Lampedusa, Italy

Havana, 25 mar (RHC) In the last 24 hours, 2,045 migrants landed on the southern Italian island of Lampedusa, setting a record for arrivals at the site and evidencing the worsening of the current crisis, according to a report from the Coast Guard Service.

The statement released on the digital site of the television channel TgCom 24, indicates that the 43 boats,

In the Imbriacola reception center alone, with a capacity for less than 400 people, 1,831 new arrivals are c

The migration issue was at the center of the agenda that Italian Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni brought to t

At the end of the meeting, Meloni told the media that "it can be said that Italy is very satisfied", since there

A recent report from the Italian Ministry of the Interior indicated that "between January 1 and March 11 of t

Given the seriousness of the situation, the Prime Minister stated that her government must "find a way to s

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/317727-more-than-2000-migrants-landed-on-the-italian-island-of-lampedusa>

Radio Habana Cuba