

Israel resumes attacks on Lebanon and the Gaza Strip

Image not found or type unknown

Israel resumed attacks against Lebanon and the as part of the series of aggressions against Palestinian territories during Ramadan

Havana, April 7 (RHC) Israel resumed attacks and bombardments against Lebanon and the Gaza Strip in the early hours of Friday morning as part of the series of aggressions carried out by the Israeli state against Palestinian territories during the holy month of Ramadan.

Lebanese media indicated that one of the Israeli bombs fell in an area located between the Ras al-Ayn plain and the Rashidieh Palestinian refugee camp, south of the city of Tira. Other rockets hit nearby agricultural areas that do not have a military presence. For the moment, the Lebanese authorities have not reported any casualties to regret as a result of the bombardment.

The Israel Defense Forces (IDF) said in a statement that the bombing was directed at alleged targets of the Palestinian resistance movement Hamas in southern Lebanon. In the text, the IDF holds the Lebanese state responsible for the attacks against Israeli territory launched from the Arab country.

Hamas blamed Israel for the attacks and called on Palestinian groups to unite against the Israeli occupation.

For its part, the Wafa news agency indicated that the Israeli forces resumed their bombardments against the Gaza Strip on Friday.

According to the Palestinian media, the new attacks were concentrated in the Nusseirat refugee camp in the center of the Palestinian territory of Gaza. Shots were also reported from Israeli warships on the beach in the city of Beit Lahia in the northern Gaza Strip.

The Israeli bombings come amid an emergency meeting of the Security Cabinet called by the country's prime minister, Benjamin Netanyahu. At the start of the meeting, he declared that Tel Aviv "will strike back at its enemies, and they will pay the price for any aggression."

The new attacks by Israel are added to those recorded in recent days, when the Israeli police have broken into the Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem, brutally attacking Palestinian civilians who were praying. (Source: Telesur)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/318998-israel-resumes-attacks-on-lebanon-and-the-gaza-strip>

Radio Habana Cuba