Cuba ratifies will to strengthen relations with Seychelles

Havana, April 12 (RHC) - Cuba today reaffirmed its willingness to strengthen ties of friendship and cooperation with Seychelles, in order to commemorate the 45th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries, the island's Foreign Ministry reported on Twitter.

Cuba and Seychelles maintain close collaboration in the training of human resources, especially in medicine. The Antillean nation has trained dozens of young people from this group of 115 islands located in the Indian Ocean, since diplomatic ties between the two governments began on April 12, 1978.
