Havana, June 16 (RHC).- The opposite player of the Cuban U21 national team and one of the greatest volleyball talents in Cuba, Alejandro Miguel Gonzalez, has just been announced as the new signing of Jihostroj Ceske Budejovice, Czech Republic.

"I will do my best because next season will be a great season," the 20-year-old Cuban player, who is 2.08m tall, told the fans of his new club.

According to the Playoffmagazine portal, for Alejandro, the signing in the Czech Republic represents his first professional experience in the Old Continent, after debuting in the professional world two years ago in the youth ranks of Sada Cruzeiro, while a year later he made his debut with Araguari of the Brazilian Superliga.

Alejandro Miguel Gonzalez has just been named MVP of the NORCECA U21 Pan American Volleyball Cup in Havana, where he was a key player in Cuba's 3x2 victory in the final against the United States.
