

Colombia consolidates its position in Centrocariibes behind leader Mexico

Image not found or type unknown

Colombia in the Centrocariibes

San Salvador, July 5 (PL) - Colombia continues clinging today to the second place in the medals table of the Central American and Caribbean Games of San Salvador 2023, by taking more difference in the most recent date with respect to Cuba, which is in third place.

The Colombian delegation won five titles on Tuesday to reach 56 and now surpasses the Cuban delegation, winner of two and occupying the third place by countries, in five crowns (56 against 51).

In addition, the representatives of the South American nation have 60 silver and 48 bronze medals and those of the largest of the Antilles, 37 runners-up and 42 third places.

Mexico continues unstoppable at the top of the medal table with 108 gold medals, 74 silver and 68 bronze.

In the fight for fourth place, Venezuela has 19 gold medals, 30 runner-up titles and 54 third places, and is close behind Puerto Rico, fifth in the table (17-20-33).

San Salvador 2023 medal table:

Position.	Country.	Gold.	Silver.	Bronze.	Total.
-1.	Mexico	108	74	68	250.
-2.	Colombia	56	60	48	164.
-3.	Cuba	51	37	42	130.
-4.	Venezuela	19	30	54	103.
-5.	Puerto Rico	17	20	33	70.
-6.	Dominican Republic	12	25	38	75.
-7.	Deportistas Sin Bandera	12	21	20	53.
-8.	Panama	5	5	8	18.
-9.	El Salvador	5	1	8	14.
-10.	Trinidad and Tobago	4	3	4	11.
-11.	Aruba	3	7	5	15.
-12.	Costa Rica	2	5	17	24.
-13.	Nicaragua	1	1	4	6.
-14.	Barbados	1	1	3	5.
-15.	Bahamas	1	1	2	4.
-16.	Saint Lucia	1	0	1	2.
-17.	Guyana	1	0	0	1.
-17.	U.S. Virgin Islands	1	0	0	1.
-19.	Jamaica	0	5	4	9.
-20.	Bermuda	0	2	1	3.
-21.	Honduras	0	0	5	5.
-22.	Dominica	0	0	2	2.
-22.	British Virgin Islands	0	0	2	2.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/327470-colombia-consolidates-its-position-in-centrocaribes-behind-leader-mexico>

Radio Habana Cuba