Havana, July 4 (RHC)-- Cuba's Septeto Santiaguero begins a fresh European tour this July with performances in nine EU countries.

The winners of two Grammy Awards and four other consecutive nominations for the coveted prize, the orchestra, exponents of traditional Cuban music will delight their audiences with tunes from their latest album, entitled 'Y sigo pa'lante'.

Running through September 30th, the current European tour includes Spain, Sweden, Germany, Poland, Cyprus, Portugal, the Netherlands and Belgium.

Septeto Santiaguero embarked on a similar tour in 2022, sponsored by JLP Music Managements. They delighted their audiences in Spain, France, Finland, Belgium, The Netherlands and Norway. The 2022 international tour included also performances in Japan.

Septeto Santiaguero was included in the Cuban delegation that represented the Caribbean island state at the 49th edition of the Cervantino Festival, in Guanajuato, Mexico. They participated also in the Dubai Fair, in the United Arab Emirates.
