Eugenio Martínez told reporters that the session of the Table was an agreement of the parties and its venue was an express request to Cuba by the Government of Colombia and the ELN, supported by the guarantor countries, the permanent accompaniers and the group of countries of accompaniment, support and cooperation.

"Cuba served as headquarters and facilitated the conditions for a Commission of the Table of Peace Dialogues to meet in Havana since June 20, with technical participation of both parties to fine-tune the protocols that were signed on July 13 at the conclusion of the work of the Table.

"In that sense, Cuba remained active as an alternative venue and guarantor, to follow up on the Cuba Agreements signed on June 9 as a confirmation of its firm position in favor of peace in Colombia.

"Through Agreement number 11 of the Dialogue Table signed on June 9, 2023 in Havana at the closing of the Third Cycle of Peace Dialogues, the parties established that the session of the Table installed on July 10 will approve the Protocols that make up the Bilateral, National and Temporary Ceasefire Agreement and the composition of the National Participation Committee (CNP), the body responsible for energizing the design of participation in society in the Peace Process, the first point of the agenda already agreed upon."
