Cuba will support Belarus on all international platforms

Havana, Nov 10 (RHC) Cuba will continue to support Belarus at all international forums, as declared this Friday by Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero in Minsk.

Marrero, who is on an official visit to the Slavic nation, began his activities with a meeting with President Alexander Lukashenko.

He recalled that Cuba is in a very difficult situation due to the US blockade, and added that all the joint intergovernmental and business projects will contribute to improving the quality of life of the people.

Likewise, he thanked the authorities and people of Belarus for their sympathy and brotherhood as well as their position in international forums condemning the economic, commercial and financial blockade imposed on Cuba. (Source: PL)
